Important Decisions Given by Judge Blatchford.

A LITIGIOUS BROTHERHOOD.

Investigating the Accountability of Executors.

Judge Blatchford handed down various decision yesterday in the United States Circuit Court. In the case of John Leisenring vs. the Land Grant Railway and frust Company the demorrer is overruled, with costs, with leave to the defendants demorring to answer the bill within thirty days on payment of costs In the suit of Catharine J. Ludwig vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad Company the demurrer to the complaint is overruled. In the suit of Benjamin Law vs. The Wayne County Savings Bank Judge Blatchford, in his decision, states that this suit was removed into this Court under the pursuance of section 2 of the act of March 3, 1875 (18 United States Statutes at Large, 470). That section provides that "any suit of a civil nature, at law or in equity, now pending, or hereafter brought in any Blate court, where the matter in dispute exceeds, excosts, the sum or value of $500, and arising under the constitution or laws of the United States or treaties made or which shall be made under their suthority, or in which the United States shall be plaintiff or potitioner, or in which there shall be a controversy between citizens of different States, eitner parly may remove said suit into the Circuit Court of the United States for the proper district," When this suit was brought in the State Court the plaintiff was a citizen of the State of New York, and the defendant was a corporation created by the State of Pennsylvania. The defendant removed the suit into this Court. The alieged ground of removal was that this auit was a controversy between citizens of different States, and that the matter in dispute exceeded, exclusive of costs, the sum or value of $500. The suit was brought to recover $600 for preleasional services rendered to the defendant by the plaintiff as an attornoy and counsellor at law. The plaintiff as an attornoy and counsellor at law. The plaintiff as an attornoy and counsellor at law. The plaintiff as an attornoy and counsellor at law. The plaintiff as an attornoy and counsellor at law. Daniel L. Wallace and Thomas Miller va. the Switzerland Marine Insurance Company. The plaintiffs, as ropartners, brought this suit against the defendants, a corporation created by the Republic of Switzerland, in the Supreme Court of New York, on a policy of insurance issued to the plaintiffs, as copartners, by their copartnership name. The defendants instituted proceedings to remove the suit into the United States Court on a petition alleging that when the suit to the State Court. The plaintiffs new more of itzens of the State of New York. An order of removal was made by the State Court. The plaintiffs new more of the State of New York. Judge Blatchlord holds that as two of the plaintiffs are aliens the requisite jarradictional citizenship must exist as to each individual plaintiff, and an order must be entered remanding the case to the State Court. plaintiff or petitioner, or in which there shall be a

ANCIENT HIBERNIANS.

During the past four or five years the Ancient Order of Hibernians of the United States have had no end of troubles to contend against, coming not only from the disapproval of the Mother Church but also from those of their own household. The Order, which is supposed to number 70,000 members in the city of New York alone, has hitherto been accustomed to hold ill meetings here. The last national convention was held here in 1877, and passed a resolution to the effect that the next convention would be held in May, 1878, at the same place. Notwithstanding this John Hart, National Delegate; Thomas Kerrigan, National Secretary, and Edward L Carey, National Treasurer, all of whom are New Yorkers, called a con-Yoution for the same date, to be held in Boston. The New York lodges then took measures to restrain the helding of the convention in Boston, claiming that under the constitution and bylaws of the Order, as well as the resolution of the last convention relating thereto, the convention should be held in this city, where the membership has a large proponderance. An order was obtained from the Superior Court directing the officers who had noticed the meeting to take place in Boston to show cause why they should not be restrained from helding it there, and also why they should not be restrained from helding it there, and also why they should not place the books of the Order in the custody of the Court. In the meantime two conventions were held—one in this city and one in Boston. The matter came before the Court yesier-day, in Superior Court, Chambers, Chief Justice Curties on the bench, when it was expected argument would be heard on the application for an injunction. The New Yorkers were represented by Mr. Joseph Newburger, and the lovers of Boston by Messrs. Lee and Abbott. By agreement of counsel an adjournment was taken until the 27th inst. It was plain that the result of the motion could have no effect on a convention which had been already held, but the object in arguing the motion, counsel said, was to obtain a decision of the Court as to the right of the officers of the Order to call a convention to assemble in the city of Boston instead of the city of New York. Vention for the same date, to be held in Boston. The

DR. O'TOOLE'S HEIRS.

Before Surrogate Calvin yesterday, on the petition of Jennie O'Toole, now Mrs. Corcoran, and her sister, Mary O'Toole, an application was made by Mr. Henry C. Denison, their counsel, for an order to compel Charles Devlin and Timothy J. O' Foole, as executors under the petitioners' deceased father's will, to render an account of all property and assets that have com into their hands since their appointment as such executors. Mr. Denison, in presenting the application, stated that their father died in December, 1857, and under the will Mr. Devlin and Timothy J. O'Poole were appointed executors of their father's esinte, and they being minors the executors placed them under restraint in St. Joseph's Academy in Maryland. During the confinement they knew nothing of any proceeding in relation to the administration of their lather's estate, to the administration of thoir lather's estate, and when released they employed counsel to compel them to account; but their counsel permitted a motion to compel them to account; but their counsel permitted a motion to compel them to account to go by default. Having become of age they, through their present counsel, make the present application to compel the executors to render a final accounting, and also seek to vacate any decree discharging either of them from their liabilities as executors. Mr. Fisac, on the part of Mr. Devilin, claimed that the records of the Court showed that Mr. Devilin had dury accounted for every penny that had come into his hands as executor, and that he had been duly discharged under a decree of Barrogate Tucker from any further liability; but although the original decree could not be found on file the same appeared to be recorded. Surrogate Calvin, after an examination of the decree, intimated that the same could not be held as a final decree discharging Mr. Delvin, and but one question remained—as to whether any fraud had been committed. Mr. Denison suggested a reference to ascertain that fact, but Barrogate Calvin took the papers and reserved his decision. Among the counsel who lormerly took part in this still unflushed hitigation were the late James T. Brady, Richard O'Gorman and John McKeon. The amount of the estate, as claimed on behalf of the petitioners supposed to have been left by their dead father, was estimated at about $40,000, but it is alleged that all the executors have accounted for is alleged that all the executors have accounted for is alleged that all the executors have accounted for is alleged that all the executors have accounted for is alleged that all the executors have accounted for is alleged that all the executors have accounted for is alleged that all the executors have accounted for is alleged that all the executors have accounted for is alleged that all the executors have accounted for is alleged that all the executors have accounted for is alleged that alleged that all the executors have accounted for is between $8,000 and $9,000, and that of this sum $6,600 is charged for the support and education of the gris from 1857 to 1863. This amount, even ad-mitting it to have been paid, is claimed to have been

HARLEM LAND TITLES.

Henry Hart and William Remson purchased from the city in 1870 land between high and low water mark adjoining property already owned by them above the Third avenue bridge in Harlem. Subthem, claiming that the sale was void because not made at public auction. The case was argued on appeal in Supreme Court, General Torm, yesterday, where it was contended by Mr. Clarkson N. Potter, counsel for the defendants, that, as they derived their title to the uplands from Harlem patents which antodated the Dongan charter, under which the city claimed, they pre-empiryely begame entitled to low water mark. The Dongan charter gave the city all the waste, vacant and unpatented land within the city extending to low water mark. The Harlem grants conveyed the northerly part of Manhattan Island "to the end of the towns and Harlem Rywer or any part of the said ryver on which the island doth abutt." Mr. Potter argued that, even if the Harlem patents granted only to high water mark, neverticious the owners of the upland were by the act of 1852 entitled, as such, to a presumptive right to the lands under water in front of the shore. The grant to defendants by the city in 1870 was valid, the provision that all property sold by authority of the Common Council should be sold at aucuron having no bearing upon sales of land under water, which the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund had for years before power to make. The Court reserved its decision. sounsel for the defendants, that, as they derived their

MORTGAGE SATISFACTION.

A mortgage executed by Bernard Feely to a desed of record Mr. Feely now moves the Court for as order to compel the executors of the deceased to execute to him a satisfaction piece. The matter came before Judge Donobue, in Supreme Court, Chambers, where the motion was resisted by Mr. Julius J. Lyon on the part of the executors of the deceased. It was claimed by Mr. Lyon that under the law of 1868 this motion could not be made until twenty years after payment of the mortgace, and that the proper remedy was by a suit in equity. The Court coiscided with this view of the case and denied the motion. It was stated on the part of the execu-tors that all they wanted was to be protected in giv-ing the satisfaction by a proper order of the Court.

SUMMARY OF LAW CASES.

Thomas Manahan, a bankrupt, was brought before United States Commissioner Osborn yesterday by Deputy Marshal Bernhard, charged with fraudules concealment of his assets to the amount of $20,000. Bail was given in $5,000, and the case was set down for hearing this afternoon.

The General Term of the Supreme Court yesterday denied the application of Professor Theodore W. Dwight that the law graduates of Columbia College be admitted as counsellors as well as attorneys. There were seventeen students, however, who had entered petore April 30, 1876, and these were admitted both as

Jacob Aberic, proprietor of the Tiveli, was ar-raigned yesterday before Recorder Hackett on two indictments found on the complaint of the Society for he allowed to be exhibited at his theatre as a song and dance artist a child only eight years old, and also per-the Prevention of Crucity to Children, charging that he allowed to be exhibited at his theatre as a song and dance artist a child only eight years old, and also permitting a trapeze performance without the usual netting required by law. The accused pleaded not guilty to both charges.

In February, 1874, Adolphus F. Warburton obtained a judgment against Gideon J. Tucker, ex-Surrogate, for $9,233 06. Mr. Tucker was yesterday examined in the Court of Common Pleas as to his possession of property liable to be applied in satisfaction of the judgment. The examination developed the fact that Mr. Tucker's wife has some property, but he, personally, has none of any consequence.

George, the Count Joannes, has a suit against Jason H. Tuttle for $600 professional toes. The denantif denies both the services and their alleged value, and sets up a counter claim for money loaned. The plaintiff moved belore Jusep Dohohue, in Supreme Gourt, Chambers, yesterday, for an order excluding defendant from giving testimony in the case because he had not turnished a bill of particulars. Decision was reserved.

Two Italian children, named Alexander and Nint Rubino, were arrested by Officer Chiardi, of the Society for the prevention of Crucity to Children, and holu at Jefferson Market Police Court. Their father, Bartolomeo Rubino, applied yesterday through his counsel, Messrs. Howe & Hummel, for a writ of certorart to the Police magnistrate to show cause why the young ones should not be restored to his custody. He is blind, and claims he cannot travel without their assistance to lead him. The writ was allowed by Judge Donohue, made returnable to-morrow.

Proceedings on the application of the New York Contral and Hudson R.ver Railroad Company. The tissue thus raised, it was admitted by counsel, should be heard before a referee. The matter was thereupon adjourned the nearing before it to May 31.

Mrs. Biana Bannister, of No. 49 West Washington Square, was, about a month since, declared a lonatic, and a committee appointed to take charge of
